Privacy Policy

The Okonite Company app is provided by The Okonite Company at no cost and is intended for use as is. If you choose to use our Service, then you agree to the following policies involving the collection, use, and disclosure of your Personal Information. The Personal Information we collect is used only for providing and improving the Service.

Information Collection and Use

For a better experience while using our Service, we may require you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information, including but not limited to your email address. The Okonite Company itself will make no use of your Personal Information except to provide and improve the function of the Service.

Okonite employs third-party service providers to provide the Service on our behalf; to support and facilitate the Service; and to assist us in analyzing how the Service is used. The third-party services use cookies to collect information used to identify you.

Cookies

Cookies are files with a small amount of data that are commonly used as anonymous unique identifiers. These are sent to your browser from the websites that you visit and are stored on your device's internal memory.

Okonite has not included "cookies" in this Service on its own behalf. However, the third-party service providers use codes and libraries that use "cookies" to collect information and improve their services. You can choose either to accept or refuse these cookies, and to know when a cookie is being sent to your device. If you choose to refuse cookies from the third-party providers, you may find that the functionality of some portions of Okonite's application is impaired.

The third-party providers are obligated not to disclose or use information they gather from you for any purpose other than supporting the function of the Okonite application.

Log Data

As against the possibility that an error arises in your use of the Okonite app, we collect data and information (through the third-party providers) on your phone called Log Data. This Log Data includes your device's Internet Protocol ("IP") address, its name, operating system, the configuration of the app when utilizing our Service, the time and date of your use of the Service, and other statistics.

Security

We value your trust in providing us your Personal Information. Therefore, we strive to use commercially acceptable means of protecting it. Please remember however that no method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure and reliable, and we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Children's Privacy

We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from anyone under 13. If we discover that an individual under 13 has provided us with personal information, we immediately delete this from our servers. If you are a parent or guardian and you are aware that your child has provided us with personal information, please contact us so that we can take all necessary actions to expunge that information.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes we may make will be posted on this page, and will be effective immediately upon posting.
